Role

Graduate Creative (Drama)

September 2023

INTRODUCTION

Eastbourne College is a co-educational HMC independent school of some 640 pupils of whom half are full-time boarders. It is a strong community with excellent links to local schools and Eastbourne.

Academic standards are very high with an average of almost 80 per cent of A-level grades at A*, A or B in recent years. At GCSE, 66 per cent of all grades were awarded 7 to 9 (or equivalent). The College recruits from a wide-ability range, and value-added outcomes are exemplary. The majority of College leavers enter higher education at leading universities at home or abroad.

The College operates as a full boarding school, with day pupils and boarders sharing the same wide curriculum. Day pupils can complete prep in houses; buses run at 6.00pm and 8.00pm on weekdays.

We are proud of our rich, cultural and sporting traditions. The Birley Centre is a hub of music practice, performance, composition and recording. There is an established partnership with Glyndebourne and links with Ballet Rambert, local artists and musical ensembles. College artists exhibit in London, actors have starred in film, TV and the Edinburgh Fringe; the Design and Technology Department wins an extraordinary number of Arkwright scholarships. We have an enviable sports reputation, with Eastbournians competing at county level in cricket, hockey, rugby, netball and tennis; several have gone on to achieve international honours. There are also thriving service programmes, including CCF and Duke of Edinburgh.

As we celebrated our 150th year, the College completed the most ambitious development project in its history with Project 150 delivering over 30 state-of-the-art classrooms, ICT suites, a new swimming pool, café, school shop, dance studio, sports hall, squash courts, dining hall and fitness suite. We believe we have some of the best facilities of any school in the UK. For further information about Project 150 please visit the website:

We place great emphasis on a school in which education is built on core values and positive, supportive relationships. These central qualities endure long after a pupil moves on, with the five key values of participation, the pursuit of excellence, integrity, courtesy and kindness being the bedrock upon which their education stands, providing the wherewithal to flourish both at school and beyond.

THE POST

The College seeks to appoint a recent graduate to provide inspiration and enrichment to pupils' learning within the creative arts. The right person will have a marvellous opportunity to work in a stimulating environment where resources, buildings, colleagues and pupils all strengthen the process of teaching and learning.

In addition to helping support the delivery of the academic curriculum, the post would include delivery of LAMDA provision. A keen interest and/or experience in debating and acting for camera/TV production would be an advantage. It is expected that the successful applicant will bring their own talents, skills, ideas and interests to develop the creative learning experiences of our boys and girls.

The post would suit someone looking to apply their skills in a new context, providing fresh opportunities for reflection, research, presentation and production. The successful candidate will have the ability to nurture pupils' creativity while communicating enthusiasm and arousing curiosity through their inspirational support and guidance.

The post would be particularly suitable for those wishing to gain experience of working within a high-performing department in preparation for further study, or before gaining QTS.

Creative Arts at Eastbourne College

In addition to its academic offering, the College offers a full and exciting programme of activities in art, dance, design & technology, drama, music, photography and textiles. The College works with a number of professional creative practitioners and national arts organisations, such as the Rambert Dance Company, Lewes Live Literature and Culture Shift.

We also work with individual artists and organisations such as the Royal Society of Arts to provide project, workshop and lecture/recital opportunities for our students. There is a vibrant, rolling programme of professional artists' work and work from our art students exhibited in the Birley Centre. The visiting artists are encouraged to offer workshop opportunities and master-classes to our students wherever possible. In addition, we work with local community organisations and charities, such as St. Wilfrid's Hospice and are keen to foster links with other local schools and colleges.

Activities and events that may be of wider interest are published in our termly Arts Programme. This includes College productions and shows put on by professional companies and performers at the College, many of which are of interest to members of the Eastbournian Society

THE DEPARTMENT

The College has enjoyed a long and distinguished reputation for drama productions that involve pupils from all year groups and houses.

The academic department delivers a Year 9 programme to all pupils and then becomes a popular option at GCSE and A level. We currently follow the AQA syllabus and achieve outstanding results.

Although the academic course is geared towards the study of drama, the highlight for most drama pupils is still the practical work. A2 and AS productions at the end of the Lent term and GCSE performances in the summer term are of an extraordinarily high standard, with many pupils opting to be assessed for design elements including set, costume, lighting and sound, resulting in polished performances with very high production values. The aim is always to entertain an audience and we are rewarded with large and enthusiastically appreciative audiences for all academic presentations, the Eastbourne team ethos being as strong in the auditorium as it is on stage.

The drama department hosts a great many curricular and co-curricular productions and events. The College Theatre features as an important venue on the small-scale professional touring circuit and supports a wide ranging programme of professional companies, many of whom offer workshops to accompany their performances.

For further details of College productions, please see the relevant pages of the school website:

Performance Spaces

Drama facilities are excellent. College Theatre seats 284 and is at the heart of the school. It is used throughout the year for College productions and a full programme of visiting professional productions as well as numerous house concerts and revues. A brand new foyer and circulation space for College Theatre has been created as part of Project 150, the most extensive development project in the school's history.

The Le Brocq Studio theatre seats 120 and is used for day-to-day teaching, smaller productions and presentations. The outdoor Dell theatre seats 90 and is used in the summer festival week for the lower sixth play and other smaller scale events while the Jennifer Winn auditorium in the recently opened Birley Centre also provides a versatile space with an acoustically-designed, 160-seater auditorium with sprung floor. The Dell Theatre is an outdoor performance space that regularly hosts student-led productions in the summer term.

POSTSCRIPT

There are many attractions to teaching at Eastbourne College, not least its location on the south coast in on the sunniest parts of the country.

The College provides a safe, urban environment in an attractive part of a peaceful town where pupils have easy access to cinemas, shops and theatres at appropriate times, and this strengthens the boarding experience. The railway station is close, with easy travel to Gatwick (one hour) and London (under 90 minutes) and the beach is a five-minute walk away.

The school is a strikingly happy, cohesive and coherent community. We look forward to meeting you.
