Role

Teacher of History (January 2025)

January 2025

INTRODUCTION

Eastbourne College is a co-educational HMC independent school of just over 640 pupils, of whom half are full-time boarders. It is a strong community with excellent links with local schools and the remarkable town in which it is located.

Academic standards are very high with an average of 80% of A-level grades being awarded A*, A or B in recent years. At GCSE approximately two thirds of all grades awarded are 9 to 7. The College recruits from a wide ability range and value-added outcomes are exemplary. The majority of College leavers enter higher education in leading universities at home or abroad.

The College is run as a seven-day week boarding school. Day pupils share the same wide curriculum as boarders and enjoy equal access to the physical and human resources of the school. Day pupils can complete their prep in Houses; buses run at both 18:00 and 20:00 on weekday evenings. Boarders have the flexibility to return home at weekends.

The Birley Centre is a hub of music practice, performance, composition and recording. There is an established partnership with Glyndebourne and links with Ballet Rambert, local artists and musical ensembles. College artists exhibit in London, actors have starred in film and TV; the Design & Technology department wins an extraordinary number of Arkwright scholarships. We have an enviable reputation for sport both regionally and nationally. Eastbournians frequently represent the county in hockey, rugby, cricket and netball; several old Eastbournians have gone on to achieve professional contracts and international honours. There are also thriving CCF, D of E and service programmes.

Eastbourne College places great emphasis on the importance of developing a school in which education is built on core values and positive, supportive relationships. These central qualities will endure long after a student moves on from the College. The five key values of participation, the pursuit of excellence, integrity, courtesy and kindness are, it believes, the bedrock upon which every child's education should stand, providing them with the wherewithal to flourish both at school and beyond.

THE POST

THE POST

The successful applicant will be expected to teach history to pupils of all abilities throughout the school. Year 10 & 11 students follow the Edexcel IGCSE course and at A-level, sixth form students are taught the AQA specification. History is a compulsory subject for all pupils in year 9, in which they develop the knowledge and skills to enable their further study. The successful applicant will be expected to share their passion for History by offering enrichment opportunities to pupils outside of the taught specifications.

All members of Common Room are expected to play an additional part in the broader life of the College, by acting as a tutor in one of the day or boarding Houses and by offering their expertise, for example, in coaching team sports, or contributing to music, drama, debating etc. The history department has a long tradition of wide and varied contribution, recognising the value it brings to relationships with pupils in the classroom.

THE DEPARTMENT

The department has seen significant growth in numbers opting for IGCSE over the past 5 years and remains one of the most popular choices for IGCSE and A-level. A healthy number of leavers opt to read history at university, including Oxbridge.

All pupils study history in Year 9. Topics include the First World War, the Suffragettes, the Russian Revolution, the USA in the 1920s, and a brief introduction to the causes and the course of the Second World War. For IGCSE we follow the Edexcel IGCSE course: Germany 1918-45, Civil Rights in the USA 1945-74, China 1900-1989, and the Vietnam War 1945-1975. A-level (AQA) topics include a breadth study on 17th century British History 1603-1702 and a depth study on the American Civil War, 1845 – 1877. The Coursework option investigates reasons for the development of Black American civil rights from 1877 -1965.

The Department has previously run successful trips to Belgium (a battlefields trip to Ypres), Berlin, and Washington D.C.

There are currently five members of teaching staff in the department.

POSTSCRIPT

There are many attractions to teaching at Eastbourne College, not least its location on the south coast in on the sunniest parts of the country.

The College provides a safe, urban environment in an attractive part of a peaceful town where pupils have easy access to shops, cinemas, and theatres at appropriate times, and this strengthens the boarding experience. The railway station is close, with easy travel to Gatwick (one hour) and London (under 90 minutes). The beach and sea are a five-minute walk away and the South Downs (the newest National Park) are literally on our doorstep.

The school is a strikingly happy, cohesive and coherent community. We look forward to meeting you.
